

THE CIVICS AND DIVERSITY OUTREACH VIDEO

Created and Produced Summer 2021

Thank You and Credits

"I believe that each era finds a[n] improvement in law, each year brings something new for the benefit of mankind. Maybe this will be one of those small steps forward."

Clarence E. Gideon, brief to the U.S. Supreme Court in the landmark case Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 U.S. 335 (1963).

A special word of thanks to the Kansas and Western District of Missouri Chapter of the Federal Bar Association (FBA), which provided funding for this video project, to the Civics and Outreach Committee of the FBA, which orchestrated the project, and to the many individuals who contributed to the success of the project, most notably:

Paige Bangerter, whose vision of a Civics and Diversity educational video made it all possible and who ultimately added so much to the quality of the production as its moderator;

FBA Civics and Outreach Committee members Danielle Atchison, Kate Simpson, and Magistrate Judge Teresa James, who spent untold hours planning and persuading lawyers, judges and other community leaders to give interviews for the video.

The incredibly talented young videographer who filmed the entire program, Jalen Gifford.

All those who gave so generously of their time to be interviewed for the video, in order of their appearances:
